RE: Floodplain Permit Application for VLTN-06-03
Section 36, T6N, R21W, Ravalli County
Parcel 602450/Geocode 1467-36-4-01-69-0000
Parcel 602470/Geocode 1467-36-4-01-70-0000

Dear Mr. Shook,

The Ravalli County Planning Department received and began reviewing your floodplain permit application on January 12, 2007. On January 22, 2007, it was determined that your application was deficient and we requested additional information in order to continue review of your projects. To date, the requested project information has not been received.

According to the Ravalli County Floodplain Regulations, Section 3-7 (e), when an application is deemed incomplete, the applicant has six (6) months to resubmit the application or forfeit the application fee. Over six (6) months has passed since your application was determined deficient, therefore your application is now considered expired.

If you wish to proceed with your floodplain projects you will need to resubmit a new application with the appropriate application fee. Please be sure to address the items found deficient in your original application. Feel free to contact our office if you have any questions.

Respectfully,

Laura Hendrix, CFM
Ravalli County Floodplain Administrator
